The keepsake magazine includes 84 pages of Kansas City Chiefs coverage from SI senior writers Albert Breer, Greg Bishop, Conor Orr, Michael Rosenberg, and contributor Robert O'Connell, with features on Patrick Mahomes, Chris Jones, Travis Kelce, and new Chiefs wide receivers. Sports Illustrated honors the franchise's greatest moments in history inside the commemorative – from being a part of the inaugural 1967 Super Bowl to the first Chief to be named the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 2018, Patrick Mahomes.

Fans can flip through this year's season in pictures and flashback through playoff triumphs for the Chiefs, who have been making appearances on the cover of Sports Illustrated for more than half a century—from their days as an AFL powerhouse to the Joe Montana era to their current run as a budding Super Bowl dynasty. Relive that rich history in this special commemorative issue.
